The Crisis.

I will issue a Weekly paper, to be called "THE CRISE." at the city of Columbus, and State of Ohio, at two dollars per annum, of fifty-two numbers, payable always in advance, and to commence during the month of January, (1861.) fail sett commencing with number 1, it was to important for subscribers to send their names as early as possible, so that I can form some estimate of the edition to commence with.

I have a great many reasons for publishing this paper, as will more clearly appear to my readers as it progresses, and hence I shall ofter neither excuse nor apology for what, at first view, to some, may be considered a singular determination.

"PHE CRISES" will fully and thoroughly sift the great issues that hang like a cloud of night over our common prountry, and if our nationality, as it is, cannot be preserved whole and undivided, the still greater question will arise, more perplexing, as it is more gloomy, what are to be the conditions of our dissolution and disgree.

These are momentous questions, yet they are crowding hard upon us, and we have got to look them in the face, as unpalistable as they may be.

I have not much thath in seeing those who have brought this fearful crists upon our country, show patriotism and manilness enough to confess their errors, recitly their mistakes, and restore the country to the anfe and healthy condition in which they found it, but I shall never lose confidence in the mass of the people, nor distrust their right intentions until all hope is lost, and we are smitten down by the paricidal hand.

My connection of thirty years with politics and the press, gaves me some claims upon the people for at least a candid hearing.

If possible, let us save our country from the perils that surround it, and ourselves from the stigms of incapacity and National wickedness. If it is too late, and we are aiready whirling to the dark abyss of dissolution and chaos, in the name of humanity iet us halt and not rush headlong into civil commotions such as have never lafore reddened the earth with a brother's blood.

But a Prospectus is no place to argue great questions. "The Crusts" will do that at length, and without gloves. I will speak freely of men and measures, and call things by their right names. When a great

To my friends in Ohio, I once more appeal. I have often done so, but never in vain. In this terrible crisis in our affairs, will you not stand by me in this last appeal which, in the nature of things, I can never make again. God has spared my life to witness this mouruful and gloomy scene—to witness the distroying angel passing almost unheeded over our fair and, crushing the hopes of millions in its dread flight.

Scrofula, or King's Evil.

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, flith and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who saye, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon will visit the iniquities of the fathers

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, cruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders. stand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking in-fection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and in-vigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

We are enabled here to offer the community a remedy which, while it cures the above complaints we are enabled here to one the community a remedy which, while it cures the above complaints with certainty, is still perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a remedy is invaluable in districts where these afflicting disorders prevail. This "Cure "expels the minsmatic poison of Faves and Adue from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in billous districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the missmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spieen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis and Devangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" explisit the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protaction to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and carnot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into discase. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.
